HAPPY NEW YEAR!

My Dear People,

For so many reasons this year's Christmas celebrations will go down in the books as among the top 5 highlights of my life! I can't get over it all! The decorations! The music! Most importantly the wonderful people of our Parish! Truly, a Christmas to remember!

Let me acknowledge a few groups of people: First, our children. What a delight to watch and listen to such young and innocent faces and voices at our 4:00 p.m. Mass! God bless them, each and everyone of them. From the little play they did before mass, to keeping our voices lifted to God during the mass, and their excitement for the Big Day that only they can bring us. Thank you, children and your leaders Cora, Terry and Joe.

Our adult choirs never sounded finer than they did at the Midnight Mass! Simply put, it was beautiful. Thanks to Marge and Joe and all of the members for working so hard and so well together.

The Art and Environment Committee took our Christmas decorations to new heights of spectacular! Our Church is the talk of the valley this year. I had a vision, and the committee far exceeded any expectation than I ever dreamed. Thank you, Elaine Carpenter, for your leadership and thanks to Chris, Trudy and John for going deep into the forests to find our trees, setting them up and lighting them.

A special thanks to all who served the masses, lectors, extraordinary ministers, altar servers, cantors, ushers, and volunteers- all who made our masses flow nicely. Special thanks to seminarian, Michael Derevich, for spending part of his Christmas break with us and helping us in so many ways.

I want to extend a very special thank you to all who sent cards, gifts, cookies, doggie treats for Dino, and the warm greetings you extended to me. I am very humbled and touched by your goodwill and generosity. Thank you.

Also, many, many thanks to Rich Nemetz for chairing our Fall and Advent fundraisers, and for all the wonderful volunteers who came out to share their time and talents. It takes a lot of time and hard work, and I want you to know I appreciate what you do for our parish. Thanks, Rick, and crew!

Let me not fail to mention those who work so hard in our parish each and every day: our incredible Pastoral and Office and Support Staff. I believe we have the best group of people possible working with us. You can see all their names on the last page of the bulletin. Also, where would we be without our Religious Education Instructors? Teachers for two tracks, aides, volunteers, all serving our children and parish out of love. God Bless you all.

Know that you all have my esteem and gratitude for all you do. I am very overwhelmed at everyone and all the talents they bring to our Parish. The VISION is becoming a REALITY, thanks to everyone's participation and tremendous hard work!

I can very confidently say that the three former churches of Swoyersville HAVE BECOME ONE PARISH. As Bishop Bambera wrote in his Pastoral Letter, we are the wounded, loved and re-gathered. The time for scattering has passed.

May God bless each and everyone of you, and may you have a holy, healthy, happy, and prosperous New Year!

In His Love,
Father Joe

2014 CHURCH CALENDARS

You may pick up your new Parish Calendars after Mass today located on the tables at the church entrance.

Many thanks to the generosity of Wroblewski Funeral Home for sponsoring our calendars. May God bless you always.

NEXT SUNDAY

We shall conclude our Christmas Celebrations next Sunday with the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. As it took much work to put up all of the decorations it will take many hands to bring all of the decorations down. If you could help us, and we do need your help, especially strong men to help us climb ladders and take down the trees, please come to the church after the 11:30 a.m. Mass next Sunday around 1:00 p.m. Many hands make for light loads. Please help us if you can. Thank You.

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Prayer

Lord God,
You blessed Elizabeth Seton with gifts of grace, as wife and mother, educator, and foundress, so that she might spend her life in service to your people. Through her example and prayers may we learn to express our love for you, in love for our fellow men and women. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, Who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit. One God, forever and ever. Amen.
